Greetings from Arm Slingin' Steve!

Awesome rehearsal last night! There was some really nice singing going on. I counted 20 total bodies present. That's a pretty good number when you consider that at least 15 regular members were out for various reasons. There were also at least 4 guests who have been singing with us that were absent. When you add it all together, We have a possibility of 39 singers if ALL were present. We're getting closer to that magical 40. Keep bringing new guys!!! Great to have Kim (new bass singer) back for the THIRD time! Either he likes it, or has nothing better to do. We hope it's the former.

Couple of reminders:

Doug Calloway passed around a sign-up sheet a few weeks ago that had a couple of items on it... June 8th, 6PM, fundraiser benefit at Austin Hotel- we are signed up and ready to go!!! You were also asked about the possibility of singing a few Sunday mornings at local churches in our community.

Our first invitation has been offered-

June 1st, 10:45 AM –

Faith United Methodist Church, 321 Nash Street-
(beside the YMCA- off Lerner St).

We need solid commitments from all of those who can make it.

What a wonderful opportunity!! This is Ron Powell's church. We would sing around 11:30 for 20 minutes or so, and then be invited to eat lunch!

Rehearsals and plans for the Broadway Show are coming along nicely. 'Give My Regards to Broadway' is coming together, and we started 'Anything You Can Do' last night. Good Work! We did some nice work last night on 'Nevertheless' and 'Who Will Buy'. Pull out 'Crazy Bout You Baby' for this coming Monday night.

Great Job! Keep up the good work. Sing through 'Crazy Bout You Baby' this week. Music and tracks are on the website for download. You can download tracks for 'Anything You Can Do' from our website now. If you need help downloading- contact Andy Hemphill at andy.hemphill@yahoo.com

We'll get back to rehearsing some other repertoire songs (Gospel / Patriotic) this coming Monday.
